NOW FOR WINDSOR MEETING

HORSES HAVE ALREADY REGUN TO ARRIVE AT CANADIAN COURSE OPPOSITE DETROIT.

Outlook Is for Best Brand of Racing in History of the Track-Horses of F. D. Weir, J. W. May, G. Hendrie, and G. W. Scott Arrive.

Detroit, Mich., July 6.—More than one hundred horses have already arrived at the Windsor track for the meeting that will open there Saturday, July 13, to continue one week. Frank D. Weir arrived from Latonia with fifteen head, including Any Port, Idleweiss and the two-year-olds Miss Edith and Sprightly Miss. The last two mamed were winners on the Kentucky tracks and come here in fine condition. John W. Graver came in with George Hendrie's string, including Steamboat and the jumpers, Steve Lane and The Shaughraun. J. W. (Bub) May is on the seene with a dozen head, including Countless, the well-known handicap racer. G. W. Scott has arrived with half a dozen useful thoroughbreds, including J. H. Houghton, P. H. Jones came with Prince Pal and others.

The shipment from Fort Erie, where racing is on this week, will start on Sunday and from that day until next Saturday the thoroughbreds will pour into the Windsor stables.

Secretary Parmer, who is on the scene, says that he expects at least 600 horses for the coming meeting and perhaps 700. "It is the best class of thoroughbreds we have ever had promised for Windsor." says Mr. Parmer. "I look for fields of quality in all of the stakes and overnight purses, and with low."

The officials at Windsor will embrace practical!y

low."
The officials at Windsor will embrace practically the same personnel that has been seen there during the last few years. In the judges' stand will be Messrs, C. F. Price and Frances Nelson, while A. B. Dade will handle the barrier. Fred Gerhardy will officiate at the scales, as he has for many years, and together with Judge Nelson and Secretary Parmer, will assign the weights for the handicaps.

THOROUGHBREDS AT THE NURSERY STUD,

Thirty-one Yearlings and Thirty-three Sucklings Among Great Band at Belmont Breeding Farm.

Lexington, Ky., July 6.—August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, has a magnificent band of theoroughbred stallions, marcs, yearlings and suck lings at the far-famed Nursery Stud. The collection includes the stallions Rock Sand, Hastings, Fair Play and Singleton, seventy broodmarcs, a dozen or so pensioned marcs, thirty-one yearlings and thirty-three sucklings.

so pensioned marcs, thirty-one yearlings and thirty-three sucklings.

Thanks to the watchfulness of Superintendent Ed. Kate and his assistants, these horses are all in good health and excellent physical condition. They presented a most interesting study, particularly the yearlings and foals, when the writer recently made the rounds of the great farm, visiting the stallion barn, the best in the state; the yearling stables, containing many large, roomy boxes; and the woodland pastures, dotted here and there with sheltering quarters for the broodmarce and their foals.

The yearlings embrace nineteen colts and twelve tillies and they were all named at the time of their registration last November, that being an annual practice with the chairman of the Jockey Club, who is the great stud's master and who has said that he will never retire from racing until be has won England's historic classic, the Derby at Epsom Downs, in which his Tracery, son of Rock Sand and Topiary, bred and foaled right here in the blue grass region, was third to the grey filly Tagalie and the bay colt Jaeger a month ago. Ogden—Tea's Over.

Cross Bun, br. f, by Peter Pan—Lucy Cross.

Fathom is the only yearling in the United States by Ethelbert, and he is expected to win turf laurels. He is a "little red horse," his color being quite similar, say old-timers who have lately visited the Nursery, to that of Aristides, winner of the first Kentucky Derby. Fathom is beautifully made, his compact form giving one the impression that he possesses speed and stamina in abundance. Ha'penny looks good all over. He is the first of the cross of Rock Sand on a Hastings mare and it is, if appearances count, quite likely to become popular. Thorn Hill is a chestnut in color and is better made than a $12,000 brother Hawthorn. He is without the caff knees and is good all around. Fools Cap is a big horse with particularly good legs and feet. High Flyer is a half-brother to Rising Glass, a good horse in England, and Superintendent Kane thinks a great deal of him. Yuba Bill is a colt of magnificent size and shape. He looks like an average two-year-old. Single Ray is racy looking and may be another Whist. Black Walnut is of the old-fashioned English type, Nicety is built much on the order of Hawthorn, but is smoother and better finished. Dr. M. M. Leach took his sister to Australia last fall and she is well liked there. Fairy Gold is a likely (Continued on second page.)

SIRES OF TWO-YEAR-OLD WINNERS

For once in a number of years has Cesarion been robbed of the distinction of sending the most winning two-year-olds to the races, the robbers this year being Star Shoot and Marta Santa. These two have each nine successful two-year-olds to their credit, while so far Cesarion has only been able to muster eight. The other stallions with more than five are Abe Frank and his near relative, Hamburg, with six each. Nasturtium, Peep o'Day and Yankee are credited with five, Russell, Fatherless and Stalwart with four and so on down to those only having one winning representative. The sires in order and their records of their winning two-year-old sons and daughters are:

THE MANAGER WINS AGAIN

T. C. McDOWELL'S CRACK THREE-YEAR-OLD ONCE MORE SCORES IMPRESSIVELY.

Makes Great Weight Concessions to Good Opposition in Handicap at Fort Erie-Perthshire Wins Stake Feature of Closing Day's Program.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 6.—Thomas C. McDowell's crack colt, The Manager, after taking the honors in the Canadian Derby, again demonstrated his superiority over the racers gathered here by beating decisively a supposedly good band to which he was conceding much weight at Fort Erie today. The Manager scored impressively in fast time.

Today marked the closing of the first period of racing at the Fort Erie track and an attractive program drew to the course an attendance almost of opening-day proportions. The weather was intensely hot and there was much complaint on the score of inadequate transportation facilities. As a getaway offering, Secretary Maginn provided a good card of eight races, featured by the Fort Erie Selling Stakes, carrying a guaranteed value of $1,590. Perthshire, coupled with Ivabel, carried off the honors, with Spring Board in second place and Helen Barbee third.

A mishap immediately after the start of the third race, in which Rock View unseated McTaggart, was responsible also for the defeat of The Widow Moon, one of the best backed starters of the meeting. The riderless Rock View Interfered with the filly at every stride. Cock o' the Walk won the race from Sand Vale, with The Widow Moon third.

The Kentuckians began auspiciously when T. C. McDowell's Chinook showed his heels to the other starters in the opener, the favorite Flabbergast landing in third place, a slight margin behind Brush. Malitine figured in a sensational finish in the second race, getting up in the last stride to win. S. W Streett's Cowl furnished an upset in the fifth, when he won from Coy Lad and King Commoner. The latter was raced into exhaustion in an effort to keep early pace with Wintergreen.

Eagle Bird, favorite in the seventh race, just lasted to beat Battlie Sue, and Reybourn won the closing dash, with Zim in second place.

The meeting just terminated was one of the best in the history of the Fort Eric track. The Kentucky contingent who came here from Latonia carried off the lion's share of the spoils, the racers from

MEADOW IN WINNING FORM IN WEST.

MEADOW IN WINNING FORM IN WEST.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 6.—The card at Lagoon today was only a fair one, the handicap being the only race with any pretension to quality. Six went to the post in this race to stuggle for the purse. Meadow was the first to catch the judges' eye at the finish. She broke well, but was taken back behind the pacemaker, then came with a rush in the last eighth. The saddle slipped on Jenny Geddes when she looked like a winner at the paddock and McDowell could be of little assistance to her when it came to the drive. Spohn ran under a stout pull in the early running and failed badly at the end.

Vested Rights won the juvenile race at four and one-half furlongs. He was outpaced in the early part and Gross brought him up on the extreme outside and at the finish he had to be ridden out, as Auto Run came with a tremendous rush. Trojan Belle reared at the post and fell backwards. She probably wrenched herself badly, as she returned to the stable quite lame.

Sevenfull, well ridden, won the sprint at five furlongs from Sixteen in a hard drive. Gemmell, the favorite, was on the outside throughout the running. He came fast in the final eighth, but it was too late.

Al Luzader took a hand in the bidding up on horses today. He advanced Lady Panchita from $500 to $800, but she was retained by her owner.

ENTRIES SOON FOR ENDURANCE STAKES.

Louisville, Ky., July 6.—Announcement was made today by Lyman H. Davis, secretary of the New Louisville Jockey Club, that on October 7, the opening date of the nine-days fall meeting at Chuchill Downs, the Kentucky Endurance Stakes will be run. This will be the great feature of the meeting.

will be run. This will be the great feature of the meeting.
The value of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes will be decidedly greater this year than it was last, when it possessed a valuation of $7,500. This fall it will be worth close to $15,000, which will make it the richest prize by far on the American turf. It will attract the best long-distance racers on this continent, and Secretary Davis says that when he sends out the entry blanks next Wednesday he is sure that leading turfmen will name a field the like of which has not gone to the post in a four-mile race in the history of racing in the United States.

The Kentucky Endurance Stakes last fall was won by Messenger Boy, owned by Eugene Lutz. This horse will be trained for this year's renewal of the race.

looking colt, but Superintendent Kane does not think as much of him as he did of Fair Play at the same age. Robinetta and Olympia are particularly fine looking big fillies. Sand Glow is a good chunk, Desparity is a good looking big filly. Free Thinker is big and strong. Tea Enough stands with her legs well under her and is really racy looking. Violet Ray is a filly of unusual length. Miss Play is a chestnut in color and is probably larger than her half-brother, Worth, at the same age. Superintendent Kane said that he had not received instructions as to what is to be done with these yearlings, but he presumes that he will shortly be told to ship the selected ones East.

The sucklings number eighteen colts and fifteen fillies and are as good in appearance as the average. The list is as follows:

H. C. HALLENBECK AFTER KEENE YEARLINGS.

New York, July 6.—James Rowe said yesterday that he had agreed to the sale of the fast colt, Oliver Lodge, the property of H. P. Whitney, by the trainer, Albert Simons, to W. F. Presgrave. The price was not made known, but it is said to be $4.000.

James R. Keene is recovering from a serious illness, which a month ago aroused the gravest anxlety. Mr. Keene is now considering an offer made by H. C. Hallenbeck for the present crop of Castleton yearlings, thirty-five in all.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S CROP OF YEARLINGS.

Although the Missouri breeder, Barney Schreiber, bas reduced his stud considerably, he is still the possessor of a big band of stallions and broodmares, from which his yearlings of this year number serventy-nine. His favorite sire, Sain, is well represented, but perusal of the list here published, will serve to show that his other stallions, notably Bannockburn, Joe Carey, Otis and Sorcerer, have been given good chances. The latter is a son of Ormonde and of his list of yearlings eleven are filles. In England, because of their being grand-daughters of Ormonde, these fillies would be highly regarded in view of their possibilities as broodmares of the future. The seventy-nine youngsters owe their paternity to Sain, 15, Sorcerer, 15, Joe Carey, 15, Bannockburn, 14, Otis, 10, Lamplighter, 3, St. Savin, 3, Nealon, 2, Sain or Otis, 1, and Patroclus, 1.
